Come Holy Spirit

This weekend we celebrate what some Christians describe as 'the birthday of the church' and in London today, and all last week, a festival was arranged by many Christians to celebrate Pentecost, the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the early Church and the beginning of the spread of the Good News of our Saviour's life, death and resurrection throughout the whole world. The message of the Gospel spread out from Jerusalem to the surrounding area in a way that can be likened to how ripples of water spread out from the centre of a drop...

Jesus still asks the same of us today: that the message of the Good News of Christ spreads from the heart of our homes to those around us, from the heart of our Church to the very heart of our local community. To celebrate how we're all called to be the gift of God to those around us I'd like to start a display board showing photographs of our parish members, together with a separate display showing the gifts that we bring to those around us, for example, homemaker, teacher, nurse, carer, cleaner, shop-assistant and so on [more details about the board will follow in our Masses.] This is our parish; this is our community and we should celebrate it as we come together for the sake, not of ourselves, but for others. May the Lord continue to bless you and your family,

Fr Adrian

News this week:

To our church cleaners: Thank you for being able to volunteer to help clean the church on a Tuesday morning after Mass, but there have been many times recently when no one has volunteered, leaving just two people who stay behind to help clear up after Mass having to do all the work. Please continue to help the Parish by being available to clean the church, as it is a service to the Lord and much fairer if 'many hands make light work'. Thank you.

Unfortunately we've had complaints about the state of the church after the Family Mass. Where children have been allowed to eat in the church there have been crumbs, half-eaten biscuits and sandwich crusts left behind. Sadly, these have been left on the floor along with the majority of the hymn books and Mass sheets. Please remember to tidy away your litter and place the books and sheets on the chair shelves. Our new kneelers are designed to fit under the shelves so, although one or two chairs have broken book shelves, for the majority there should be a place to store the books and sheets in front of you.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION NEWS

Our rehearsal is from 10am to 12pm on Saturday^{6th} June so please remember to bring a packed lunch to this meeting. Our First Holy Communion Mass is at 2.30pm on Saturday 13th June, with a Mass of Thanksgiving at 10.30am the following Sunday, 21 June. Will all families please bring picnic food to share and barbeque that day as well – Fr Adrian will provide some burgers and sausages but we do need some volunteer cooks on the day as he'll only be able to join the party after saying the 12.15 Mass.

A MUSICAL PILGRIMAGE THROUGH THE AGES

"Clavis Consort" will be performing a selection of sacred music through the ages in our parish church on Wednesday 1st July at 7pm. The event has been organised by Matthew O'Keeffe, Eileen and Michael O'Keeffe's grandson, to raise funds for our Parish and to help purchase music for the Clavis choir. Tickets for this event are priced £8.00, with £5.00 tickets for children under 16. Tickets are available from Eileen O'Keefe after the 10.30am Mass on Sunday or by telephone on 020 8671 0829.

PRAYING FOR THE SICK

Please remember that there is a file in the porch where you can request prayers for those in need: the sick and housebound are very much at the heart of the church and support us in their prayers as we do them.

SUPPORTING OUR PARISH COLLECTION

Please give what you can to the parish collections each week, as more money is spent in the upkeep of the church than we receive. If you can, please give upwards of one hour of your weekly income and please consider if you're able to help join one of the parish groups, e.g. counters, cleaners, refreshment team, etc. If you are a UK tax payer please also consider setting up a Gift Aid payment direct to the church bank account. Thank you for your generosity. A proportion of our first collection goes directly to support the work of our Diocese, with all monies raised in our second collection going to the particular cause each week. Thank you.
